Dear Mr. Newman,

We are just putting the final touches on volume 30 and it reminded me that I wanted to thank you again for the excellent help and advice you offered on the copper sheets and on currency symbols. We drafted our annotation accordingly and have noted our thanks for your assistance.

The ";ps" which you saw used in our annotation is simply the Press's coding for the ſ and it converts to the ſ when it actually appears in the volume.

You have been of enormous help to us as well as to other editors of early American documents, and we are most grateful. Many thanks.

Sincerely,

Barbara Oberg
